On Friday, January 11th, HustlaBall, the party famous around the world, returns to Las Vegas for its fourth smash year. Pornstars, hustlers, pimps, pornographers, hedonists, exhibitionists, porn fans and the general public are cordially invited to attend the celebration at Club Krave, the premiere gay and lesbian nightclub on the Las Vegas strip. A crowd of thousands is expected to gather on the dancefloor, gyrating to the music of world-class DJs Brett Henrichsen and Micky Friedmann. HustlaBall originated in New York in 1998 and is produced by Rentboy.com, the world's largest gay escort site.

At the HustlaBall Vegas VIP reception, partygoers will be treated to a preview of the 2008 International Escort Award finalists, presented by Rentboy.com and "The Gay Pimp", Jonny McGovern. Later in the evening, McGovern will play the brand new DIRTY REMIX of his steaming hot music video, "Something For the Fellas (5am TEAM Work Remix)" in the main room.

Porn director turned DJ Chi Chi LaRue will hold court in the VIP room all night long, hosting celebrities such as Bruce Vilanch and top porn directors and pornstars in town for the GayVN porn convention. One never knows who might show up at HustlaBall—last year in Vegas, Britney Spears was seen bumping and grinding her way across the dancefloor with her team of bodyguards in tow.

On the main stage, Emcee Willam Belli (known for his role on primetime TV as Cherry Peck in Nip/Tuck) will introduce an assortment of erotic performers, including over 50 dancers and pornstars such as Diesel Washington, Damien Crosse, Guy Parker, and the hottest new faces in the porno industry.

On Saturday, HustlaBall's "Dirty Secret After-Party," at Blue Moon Resort, is expected to be the most deliciously scandalous sex party ever held in Las Vegas, where partygoers and porn stars alike will cavort in a clothing-optional playland. Amenities include a tented, heated swimming pool, a fully equipped "playroom", go-go dancers galore all night long, and sleazy house music, including a set by Jonny McGovern himself.

HustlaBall is not just another dance party; it's a world unto itself where the boundaries of sexual expression and hedonism are explored in an atmosphere of reverence and appreciation, among luxurious banquettes, cabanas, and bars catering to the crowd's every desire. This past October in Berlin, Germany, HustlaBall sold out its 3,000 tickets to the KitKat Club, receiving rave reviews from international partygoers. But this year's party in Las Vegas, with its enormous cast of erotic performers, fresh talent, and stellar

DJs, is expected to be the best HustlaBall ever! For details see www.hustlaball.com
