Hustlaball Las Vegas 07

Hustlaball Weekend Las Vegas 2007

I With its third installation, Hustlaball returned to Sin City, Las Vegas and hosted one of the most amazing parties the gay, circuit and adult party world has ever seen, right at the famous Strip, Las Vegas Boulevard.

A kick-off party @ legendary Gipsy, Vegas's oldest gay club, showed that there was much to come, with performers and guests arriving from around the world.

This year's Hustlaball chose a great resort as their host hotel, the all-suites Alexis Park Resort, where the pre-event pool party took place the night before the main event.

DJ Jack Chang from London was spinning and Hustlaball stars were numerous, some in the nude, some getting erections, and some on the massage table. But Sin City Vegas had some surprises in store for Hustlaball, when about seven undercover police officers and even an ATF Officer showed up and the party seemed over. One of the pre-party guests came from the mayor's office and was outraged by this unnecessary raid, and literally told the officers to leave. Las Vegas has clearly had an eye on Hustlaball...

It was not until the next night that it became clear that the crew and performers of Hustlaball were indeed ruling the city for one major night.

At club Krave right at the strip, Hustlaball settled down for a third year now, and with a pre-VIP reception, red carpet interviews with Angel Benton and a huge crowd, the party of the year had begun.

The main event was finally on its way with DJ's Brett Henrichsen and DeMarko in the main floor, and Jack Chang in the VIP lounge.

Hustaball 2007

In the VIP cabanas and on the dancefloor party guests had fun until the morning hours.

The After Party at a new and fabulous venue called Piranha was off the hook, and even Britney Spears showed up at 2am to join the fun of Hustlaball. MC and legendary Shequida brought the house down with an amazing show including newcomer Shiko Aviance.

Four long nights, almost busted for some minor sins, glamour and show time, Britney in panties, and Hustlaball will now be on its way back to Berlin (October 19). But before that it will finally come back to New York City, where it all started (late June).

We'll see all you AWL fans at Hustlaball NYC (late June) and Hustlaball Berlin (October 19).

Celebrity guests included Bruce Vilanch, porn impresario Chi Chi La Rue, Joey Arias, the cast of the Celine Dion show, Frank Marino, and many others.

Showtime was playtime for many porn stars, including those from Hot House, Titan, FabScout and Rentboy.com but also highlight shows with MC Raven O from Zumanity fame, singer and songwriter Ari Gold, erotic dance duo Kenimattix, Diamondback Annie from GayStockroom.com, Tony Dancer and CJ Madison from Studio 2000 and dancers and go-gos all night long.

Yes, there was no nudity or sexual acts on stage, something that the Berlin party can talk about, but this party sure was rocking Sin City and giving Vegas an idea of what it really means to sin.
