

NEWS OF HUSTLABALL 2007

This year, there's not one, but two Hustlaballs. One in New York on Sunday September 9th, and the other on Friday October 19th at the KitKat Club in Berlin. New York's Hustlaball takes place in the enormous, three-floor Club Rebel, returning to the Big Apple for the first time in 5 years. It takes place over the weekend of September 7th to 10th with pre-event parties and, we've been told, an incredible after party, which, as it's Rentboy.com's 10th Anniversary on September 10th, will be both the after and anniversary party.

Along with the usual incredible line-up of the world's hottest porn stars, strippers, dancers and escorts who'll be turning up at the Hustlaball, world class DJs include DeMarko, ChiChi La Rue, Micky Friedman, Man Parrish and Andrew Mendez, plus there'll be an MC from Shequida. QXMEN will be at the pre-parties, Fetish Night at Eagle [554 West 28th Street] on the 7th and Porn Night at Element on the 8th, and of course the after party, so we'll report back to you all of the sleazy goings on. If you're up for this hot sleaze-fest then advance tickets are just $25 or $40 at the Box Office. But why not push the boat out and treat yourself and book an advance VIP pass for $110 (Box Office $125). VIP pass includes admission to all official Hustlaball events (Pre Event I, Pre Event II, Main Event, After Party) separate VIP entrance at Main Event, a Hustlaball DVD, a welcome drink plus exclusive use of the VIP lounge. Hustlaball in Berlin, on the Friday October 19th takes place at the world-famous KitKat Club, and DJs joining the cream of today's hottest sex workers include London's very own Jack Chang, DJ Dealer from Belgium and Dominox and Red Tomcat from Berlin. And, if after the Hustlaball you still want more, the after-hours party continues at the KitKat Club from 7am on Saturday 20th. For more event info and ticket booking, go to www.hustlaball.com.
