Viva Las Vegas!

Performer Jasper Emerald reports back from the first HustlaBall of 2007.

Flying to Las Vegas was an experience, that's for sure. I was invited as a performer for the 2007 HustlaBall sponsored by Rentboy.com. I attended the Berlin Hustlaball last October and as my fetish performance went down well, I was invited back by Tom Weiss, President for of Boy.com.

For those of you that don't know, the HustlaBall is a big event with horny sexual performances from escorts, drag queens, porn stars. This is where fans meet to celebrate the best of the gay porn industry.

For me, this was my first trip working in Vegas. I was greeted at the airport by a long limo which whisked me off to the Alexis Resort where porn stars, crew and cast stayed during the festival. First up was the opening pool party with DJ Jack Chang on the decks overlooking hung, toned boys in a welcoming hot tub. Later on the pool party was flanked by the Vegas police. I think this was due to complaints that it was getting a little too hot and horny for the employees of the hotel!

At the Piranha Club, ChiChi LaRue and Channel1 Releasing were holding their annual bash. I mingled with the porn stars of Hot House and Maleflix.com. The stylish layout of the club contained glowing toilet sinks and seats and a tank of piranha fish. A friendly, welcoming crowd sipped cocktails, just off the dance floor. Wearing just underwear and cowboy boots, gogo boys like Benjamin Bradley pleased the crowd by flexing their muscles and posing.

Vegas is liberal with all the gambling done there but this is not the case when it come to public performance sex. I was told by the promoters that we could not show cocks and ass holes, so our routine was somewhat tamed down in the rehearsal.

After the opening party the rent-boy limo took me back to the resort where I meet Bobbi Cruz of Boyhunt.us. It turned out they were promoting at the adult porn convention and brought some hot hung studs to accompany him to the gig. I have never been blown in the back of the limo going down the strip in Las Vegas - that was a first!

The main porn party at Club Krave was quite a large event with loads of fans and a great crowd who turned up to see Chi Chi LaRue host the acts. There was a great line up of international porn stars including Pierre Fitch, Mark Williams, Collin O'Neal and many muscled studs from Hot House and Titan Men. I was lucky enough to meet the Sin City Sisters of Perpetual Indulgence, with their make up and glamour they certainly made an impression on everyone in the VIP lounge that night. Sexy routines and music performances came from Pierre Fitch, Foxx from New York, Tommy Ritter, Tony Mecelli of Hothouse and Ronald Laska, a cute young hung European lad from Mans Art.

My performance was simple, Akos Piros, (the Austrian porn star and escort) and I were doing a domination routine on stage at the main party. Wearing my US naval uniform, I asked my Akos to be submissive on stage and clean my boots with his tongue and scrub the stage with a borrowed mop and bucket. After hitting his backside with my belt he would give in to my demands and be rewarded with a simulated bum rim for the crowd - Nice. It all seemed to go down well. I can't wait till the next one!
